Policy and Procedure Updates

General Order G01-11

Policy and procedure guide for communication between CPD and district councils.

Open Meetings Act (OMA) Adjustments:

Efforts to revise OMA to facilitate better communication and planning among council members.

Legislative changes are being pursued with support from state legislators.

Discussions: Guest Speaker: Kyle Cooper, President of Chicago Police Board

Introduction: Background:

Born and raised in Chicago.

Attorney specializing in business litigation.

Motivated by the George Floyd protests in 2020 to engage in police oversight.

Police Board Functions

Disciplinary Cases: Handles serious misconduct, such as unjustified shootings and evidence tampering.

Applicant Appeals:

Reviews applications for police officers, considering holistic factors beyond simple criteria.

Rewriting Rules and Regulations:

Initiating a process to update outdated rules from the 1970s to reflect modern policing and community standards.

Handling Disagreements:

Breaks ties between COPA and CPD on disciplinary charge decisions.

Current Litigation and Arbitration Issues

Arbitration Rights: Ongoing court cases regarding public employees' right to choose arbitration for disciplinary actions.

Concerns about public vs. private arbitration and officers' suspension without pay during investigations.

Call to Action

Community Involvement:

Encouraged residents and officers to review and provide feedback on proposed rule changes.

Emphasized the importance of clear and updated standards for both officers and community members.

Q&A Session

Alonzo Anderson's Questions: Settlements Without Guilty Officers:

Concern: Over half a billion dollars spent on settlements despite no officers being found guilty.

Response:

Settlements are often civil cases separate from disciplinary actions.

Delays in investigations can lead to settlements due to lost evidence or witness cooperation.

Emphasized the distinction between civil settlements and administrative disciplinary actions.
