

Apply for Chicago's 25th District Council Vacancy!

What are District Councils?

In July 2021, the Chicago City Council passed an ordinance creating District Councils in each of the city's twenty-two police districts, and in February 2023, three District Council members were elected in each police district. The District Councils work with the Chicago Police Department at the district level to address community safety concerns and serve as a bridge between the community and the police. They also propose priorities for and make policy recommendations to the citywide Community Commission for Public Safety and Accountability.

What do District Councils do?

Build stronger connections between the police and the community at the district level

Collaborate in the development and implementation of community policing initiatives

Hold monthly public meetings where residents can work on local initiatives rooted in community concerns and priorities.

Work with the community to get input on police department policies and practices

Work to develop and expand restorative justice and similar programs in the police district

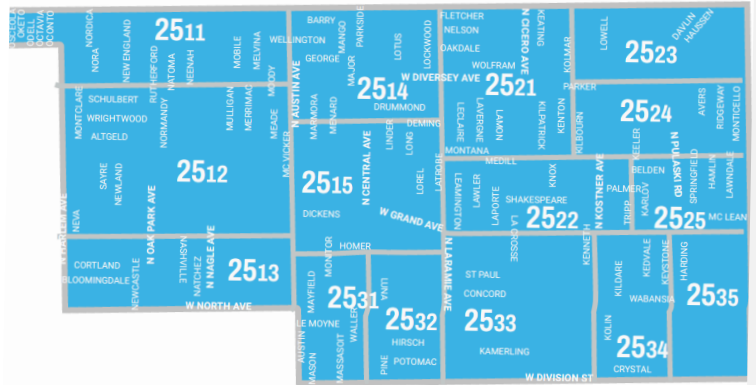

Ensure the Community Commission gets input from the community

Nominate members for the Community Commission

Are you passionate about improving policing and public safety in your district? Your opportunity to make a difference is here! The elected members of the 25th District Council are accepting applications to fill one vacancy.
